For the prevention and cure
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, cheeks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE
AND DAILY ADVERTISER.
PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.
Daily Gazette $7 ...Country Gazette $5.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1818.

Mr. Snowden,

I attended the Theatre on Saturday evening almost entirely for the purpose of hearing Mr. Caldwell, whose acting I never had witnessed. I was not a little disappointed, his style of acting so far surpassing my expectations in the character of Gossamer, in the comedy of "Laugh when you can." Though all the performances in this comedy were respectable, Mr. Durang, in Sambo, and Mrs. Legg, in Miss Gloomly, excelled.

But, I had seen in England, and on various stages in the northern states, so many GRAND SPECTACLES, or those exhibitions, the principal merit of which is intended to consist of scenery and machinery, that I had next to no hope of even being amused, much less of being delighted. Timour the Tartar was probably never better performed. Whether or not Mr. Caldwell's mustachios effected his enunciation I cannot say, but there was certainly a little mouthing:—nor is it a la militaire for a hero to stand with bent knees. Mrs. Durang, in Zotilda, performed with great spirit, elegance and propriety, and charmed throughout. But the horses were not inferior actors; especially that which, being stabbed, fell, died, and continued stone dead so long and so naturally; as well as that which kneeled to receive the princess; and those which, to enable the riders to reach with their swords the men on the turret, stood upon their hind legs, and with their fore legs braced themselves at the height of six or eight feet.

Generally plays of this sort, depending for their effect not on sentiment, humor, pathos, interesting situations, perplexing plot, nor unexpected catastrophes, but on what is intended to merely effect the eye, are more calculated to gratify children than to entertain or interest the adult. Far otherwise was this play as performed on Saturday evening to an overflowing house; and I was gratified at its being announced for to-morrow evening, when, I am confident, the house will be again crowded, and no one go away dissatisfied.

VIATOR.

From the Nat. Intelligencer, Feb. 7.

A court of enquiry having been called to enquire into the loss of the U. States' brig Boxer, under the command of Lieut. Commandant John Porter, the following opinion of the court is promulgated, having been approved by the secretary of the navy.

After mature deliberation upon the evidence adduced, the court are of opinion that the loss of the U. S. late brig the Boxer, is to be attributed to the strength of the current setting on shore, and the lightness of the wind; that her going to pieces is to be attributed to the decayed state of her timbers; and that her officers and crew made every possible exertion in their difficult situation. The court are, therefore, of opinion that no blame can be attached to Lieut. Com. John Porter, or to either of his officers or crew, in consequence of the loss of said brig.

The court adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning, the 16th of January, 1818, at ten o'clock.

The court met pursuant to adjournment. The foregoing minutes were read and approved, and the court adjourned sine die. R. T. SPENCE, Pres't.

G. M. DALLAS, Judge Advocate.

Approved,

R. W. CROWNINSHIELD.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By the ship Nestor, in thirty-five days from Liverpool, our several correspondents at New York have received Liverpool papers to the 22d, and London papers to the 24th December. We have made such extracts from the favor of our correspondents as time would permit in this day's Gazette.

Europe remains at peace, without any appearance of commotion or disturbance. The Houses of Austria and Bavaria, are said to be engaged in a further matrimonial alliance, calculated as far as such alliances may be supposed of producing such an effect, to remove the long standing jealousies and animosity between them, and to strengthen the imperial throne by detaching Bavaria from France, and uniting it to Austria.

It is stated that the disturbances which lately broke out in the East Indies between the Mahrattas and the British, have been adjusted by a peace, and that the former have ceded to the latter a tract of territory producing a large amount of revenue, as an indemnity for the expense of the war.

The Nestor made her passage out in 18 days, and homeward in 34.

An absurd rumour was in circulation in London, on the 22d, of a change of ministry, which with other reports had the effect of lowering the funds. The depression was seriously felt by large fund-holders, and such was the eagerness to sell, that at a time when 3 per cent. red. was at 80 3-4, an eminent banker offered them at 80 3-8. They were afterwards offered to the commissioners at 80 1-4. This is a fall of one per cent from the price, at which the market opened—but at one o'clock reduced were 81, and consols 82 for the opening.

French 5 per cents, December 20, 63f. 8c.

Steam-boats were employed in towing outward bound vessels down the river to Gravesend, against wind and tide.

It had been very stormy on the coast of England and Ireland—a number of vessels were shipwrecked, and a part of their crews perished. The Russian squadron, consisting of six sail of the line and two frigates had reached Spithead.

A vessel bound to the Havanna was lost near Plousca'.

Another laden with salted cod, ran into the little port of Ploughernas.

An English vessel of four or five hundred tons, with a cargo of timber, is in distress in the bay of Douarnenez.

A large vessel was wrecked on the Island of Seins, and all the crew perished. The bodies of two of the crew were found, but there were no papers about them. Several boats sent out from the Island, fell in with the hull of the ship, in which was a prodigious quantity of merchandize. They state that they have saved 176 chests of tin of large dimensions, 132 do. smaller, 83 gun barrels, 13 muskets, 19 bbls. filled with wine, 74 packages, contents not named, 2427 do. of flax, 5600 small copper basons, 30 large saws, 20 candlesticks, 2 coils of cable rope. It was not known whether the vessel alluded to was English or American—as the persons who went on board found no national flag, but only two signal flags. She struck on the western part of the Island, about one eighth of a league from the shore. The two bodies found had on nothing but their shirts—and as the vessel was wrecked in the night, it is probable they were in bed at the time. There was a large quantity of hardware, and particularly knives of all kinds found on board.

In the Lloyd's list of December 19, it is stated that the Electra, Williams, from Philadelphia, to London, was dismasted and lost her anchors and cables, during a violent gale on the night of the 7th December, and has been carried into St. Malo's by some fishing boats.

On the Coast of France generally, accounts have been received, of 14 sail of merchantmen being wrecked. Among them is said to be several East and West Indiamen.

At Brest a dreadful storm has been felt for two days and two nights. An English transport from London was lost, with 240 passengers, near Hontusval.

Our files of Lloyd's list, from the 8th to the 23d December, inclusive, contain gloomy accounts of the loss and damage of nearly two hundred sail of vessels, with many lives.

The Grace Packet, with mails for N. York, sailed from Falmouth, Dec. 20.

The chamber of Deputies at France, were engaged in the discussion of a law relative to the liberty of the press.

Marshal Marmont was seriously indisposed, at Paris, and confined to his bed.

Sir James Lucas Yeo had sailed from Portsmouth for Madeira, Teneriffe, and the coast of Africa.

The Princess of Wales received the news of her daughter's death on the 25th November, and was so deeply affected that she fainted away several times.

Mr Leach is appointed Vice-Chancellor, and Sir Thomas Plumer, Master of the Rolls in England.

The London Courier announces the success of Mr. Incledon, on the boards of our theatre, and that his share of the first six nights of performance netted him 619 pounds sterling—the same paper also mentions, that Governor Clinton and a large party of his friends, insisted on giving him a "public dinner."

The fortunate youth, who it was reported in the London papers had succeeded to a princely estate, turns out to be an imposter. Miss McAvoy, who could see at the ends of her fingers, also turns out to be an imposter. Miss Carrabou's secret movements in the United States, are also noticed in the London papers.

Las Casas remained at Frankfort, with his son, and it was not decided whether he was to proceed to Austrian or Prussian dominions.

On the 18th of December, the high Court of Justice at Brussels, had to pronounce on the appeal of the Duke of Wellington, from the sentence of the Correctional Tribunal at Ghent, which acquitted Mr. Debusscher, editor of a French Journal, of having calumniated his grace. The appeal of the Duke was declared not receivable, and he was condemned in costs.

The Courier of the 22d December says, the Gazette of Saturday contains 35 addresses of condolence to the prince Regent, and 7 to Prince Leopold.

Mr. Rush the American Minister, left Portsmouth the 20th Dec.

This morning an additional parcel of Hamburg papers, reached us, from which we extract the following:

Letters from M. Las Casas.

I. TO LORD SIDMOUTH.

"My Lord,—I am extremely sorry that I have the honor to write to your lordship, and knowing for certain that I shall not remain here long enough to receive your answer, which would, perhaps, fulfil all my wishes. For these four days I have been in the hands of your state messenger, who, on his arrival, had received from me my papers, which had been stored to me my papers, with the declaration previously sealed up with the declaration that I might do with them what I thought proper.

"After this he saw me constantly writing, and even encouraged me to do so, and waited until the very moment of my departure to take from me (as I was on the point of setting sail) all my papers, even the most trifling, in your name.

"This is a trap, my lord, which I cannot find it in my heart to ascribe to any higher person than the man who laid it for me.

"This messenger understood nothing but English. He had an assistant with him who pretended to understand some French, and desired to read the papers one after another, and has, nothwithstanding, kept them all. He would have had enough to do to read them all in a week, and I did not think that an individual had such a right over me.

"Every thing has been taken from me—letters, notes, my son's writing books, deeds of property, domestic secrets, official documents of Sir Hudson Lowe and lord Charles Somerset, my journals, and even a letter to the French minister of police, and another to my wife, which, being here at leisure, I have already directed, that it might be forwarded as soon as I landed at Ostend.—They have been taken from me, without making any inventory of them or numbering them; and they declared it was done by your lordship's orders.

"In the first moment of indignation I protested against such violence, and I inquired for a magistrate, that I might make my complaint to him. I will not here repeat the answer I received.

"As there is nothing I so much dislike as to have my name mentioned in public discussions, and considering that it was impossible that you could have prescribed such conduct, which is opposed to all the legal rules in the world, by which public officers must guard themselves against him, who, in such a case, might affirm that some papers had been taken away or others substituted; considering this, I contented myself, when I recovered my temper, with trying, with all possible means, and by all possible arguments, to induce the messenger who disposed of my fate to delay my voyage till I could write to your lordship, and receive from you the confirmation of his rigorous order.

"This man, who detained me three days on the most trifling pretext, was not to be moved in respect to this affair, though it was so important. Notwithstanding all my representations, that I had not the smallest objection to have all my papers looked over by confidential persons appointed by your lordship for the purpose, and that your lordship must yourself desire that certain formalities were observed in respect to me; that in the examination of my papers, my presence would be very useful, if not absolutely necessary, to give explanations respecting things that would not be understood without me; that he sent me in person to the Continent, and kept my papers in London; that it was to be feared that there was a misunderstanding, and that in 24 hours all would be cleared up, he answered me coldly, that I need not be uneasy respecting my return from the Continent; if it should be necessary you would pay all the expenses. To what hands, my lord, have you delivered me?

"On another occasion, my lord, which was certainly against your instructions, I was obliged to impose silence upon the man who guarded me, on account of his gross abuse of the august person whom I honor above every thing in the world.

"In one word, my lord, since I have touched your coast I am treated as a malefactor, and in what does my crime consist? That I, as perhaps is believed, have a different political opinion, and went voluntarily into imprisonment at Longwood! But is not the last the most noble and excellent action that is known, and so noble that every body would rejoice in his heart to have given this example? My lord, the natural mildness and justice which are attributed to you cannot possibly have approved all that has been done to me.

"I have received permission, and have hastened to seal the papers taken from me, not to protect myself against your lordship, but, on the contrary, for your interest, to supply the deficiency in the form which might, perhaps, have compromised your agents.

"I beg your lordship again to turn your attention to my affairs, and to decide nothing respecting my papers till you have received from me the information which you may desire, and which you shall have to your entire satisfaction.

"I assure you beforehand, that however different the opinions and feelings may be that will be found in them, there is not one respecting which judicial examination or amicable negotiations could not take place. Nothing interesting will be found in them relative to affairs of state, nor any political secret. I have never had any thing of the kind; and if it had been the case, I should, long since, have not wanted an opportunity to make use of it.

"This is, perhaps, my lord, the place where I should mention the papers which were taken from me at St. Helena, as well as many other things, respecting which I shall have to speak with your lordship, or with lord Bathurst. But the few moments I have left, and the confusion in my thoughts which such sudden and unexpected events occasion, oblige me to put it off till another time.

"I shall wait with impatience for your Lordship's answer, where I know not, perhaps at Brussels, if I obtain permission to stop there.

"I have the honor, &c.

(Signed) "Count LAS CASAS.

"Dover, 22d Nov. 1817."

[This copy is made from memory, and some words may therefore, be different from the original, but the language and the sense are certainly the same.]

II. LETTER TO LORD HOLLAND.

"My Lord—I had the honor to send you a letter from the extremity of Africa, with a duplicate to it. I hope that you will pardon me the feeling that dictated it to me. It drew me, though unknown, to him, who from love of justice and greatness of soul, took up the most noble of all causes. I add to it the few documents that I had on my hands, the grievances at Longwood, my correspondence with Sir Hudson Lowe, and the sketch of a petition to parliament. Have you received them?

"The more unfortunate I become, the more does my confidence encrease. The treatment I have received since I approached the English coast, and the impulse it has given to that which I experienced on the continent, are difficult to describe.

"I take the liberty to annex my letter to Lord Sidmouth, on this subject. If it should happen that the newspapers, as they usually do, should misrepresent my case, any of those voices, which continually watch over every kind of abuse and injustice, be heard in parliament, your lordship will have the advantage of being acquainted with the whole affair.

"My Lord, I add to the copy of this letter that of another, of which I must be proud. I would also for the future have rejoiced over it in silence, if it were not necessary to annihilate the lying reports of the journals, which have spread a false opinion on the continent. Some pretend that I left Longwood because, weary of the brutality of him from whom I parted with grief, I could not live with him any longer.—Others, without further particulars, say that I deserted him. The annexed letter, if it is made public, will shew the truth. It is a favor which I beg of you, unless your lordship should see objections which I have not remarked.

"My Lord—they make me very unhappy; they make me a martyr: that is to say, generous hearts are made to incline to me, and their participation console me for all.

"It is attended with the greatest difficulties that I write these few lines to you. May they come into your hand. If time allows me to present my grievances to your ministers, you shall receive a copy of them. Accept the homage of my gratitude and my respect.

(Signed) COUNT LAS CASAS."

[It is to be observed that this is not translated from the French, but from a German translation.]

Brussels, Dec. 8.—One of our Journals has published some letters of Count Las Casas, the first addressed to Lord Sidmouth and a second to Lord Holland.—These letters are corroborated by the following:

"All the public papers gave at that time erroneous accounts of the reasons of my departure from Longwood. The following will establish the truth:

"My dear Count Las Cases—My heart sensibly feels what you experience. Torn from me sixteen or seventeen days ago, you have been confined au secret, without being permitted to receive any information about me, or to communicate with any person whatever, either French or English, and even destitute of servants of your own choice.

"Your conduct at St. Helena has been like your life—honorable and without reproach; I take pleasure in telling you so.—[Here three fourths of the letter are wanting.]

"Your company was necessary to me; you alone could speak and understand English. How many nights have you passed with me in my illness. However I advise you, and if needful, I order you, to require the governor of this island to send you to the continent. He cannot refuse this, having no power over you, but by your voluntary consent, which has placed you under his authority. My heart will rejoice to know that you are on your way to happier countries.

"Whether you go to England, or whether you return to your own country, forget the recollection of the ills which you have been made to suffer. Boast of the fidelity which you have shewn to me and of the entire affection which I bear you.

"If you should one day see my wife and my son, salute them (embrassez les) For more than two years I have no news of them, either directly or indirectly.

"[Three lines are here wanting] However, comfort yourself and console my friends. My body, it is true, is in the power of my enemies; their rage forgets nothing that can satiate their revenge;—they kill me by inches, (ils me font mourir a coups d' epingle) but Providence is too just, I am sensible of it, to permit this to continue long in the midst of this consuming climate, deprived of every thing that supports life. [Here three lines are wanting]

"As there is every reason to believe that you will not be permitted to come before your departure, receive my embraces, the assurances of my esteem, and of my friendship, be happy.

"Your affectionate

The tea trade is, we expect, and as we long ago anticipated, on the point of being thrown open under the following regulations: that tea may be imported with the same freedom of permission as other goods, on the payment of

38 on Bohea and low Congos	}	p. 100
16 on other kinds	}	lbs.

But when imported direct from China or Batavia, by and for account of resident subjects, in Dutch built and Dutch owned ships, the duty to be only

32 10 upon the first	}	descriptions,
5 on the latter	}	per 100 lbs.

The custom house tares to be on whole and half chests 18, and on quarter or smaller chests 20.

Bohea is only considered as such in whole chests, and no other shall be admitted under the denomination of low Congos, but such whose current market price shall be under 31 per lb.

Export duty 1-5 per cent. on value, or 3 1-2 per 100 lbs. at option of the exporter, and no transmit throughout the country allowed.

Teas now in government warehouses, or that which may be imported upon or before the 15th Oct. 1818, under existing licenses, may be taken into the uncontrolled possession of the consignees, upon payment of the lower rates of duty only.

The king to have the privilege of extending the benefit of Dutch built ships to such as are not wholly owned by subjects of the realm, and are actually under the Dutch flag, and in case of the want of vessels of the above two descriptions, his majesty may extend the same privilege for one voyage only to foreign built ships purchased within —— years of the date of the present regulations taking effect; and this, it is presumed, will be immediately on the present regulations being passed into a law.

THEATRE.

☞ The splendid spectacle of TIMOUR THE TARTAR, with all the horses, having on Saturday evening been received with the most unqualified marks of approbation by a brilliant and overflowing audience, the public are most respectfully informed that its second representation will take place on Wednesday Evening, February 11,

when those Ladies and Gentlemen who were disappointed in procuring seats will have an opportunity of witnessing this novel entertainment.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 11, Will be repeated the grand spectacle of

TIMOUR the TARTAR,

WITH ENTIRE NEW SCENERY, MACHINERY, DRESSES AND DECORATIONS,

The scenery painted by Mr. Grain and assistants, the machinery by Messrs. Varden, Ashe and assistants.

Timour (Khan of the Afghan Tartars)	Mr. Caldwell
Agib (Prince of Mingrelia)	Mrs. Legg
Bermeddin	Mr. Carr
Abdalec	E. Emberton
Octar	Hayes
Kerim, 2rival chieftains in Love with Selima	Parker
Sanballat, 2rival chieftains in Love with Selima	Tatnell
Orasmin	Ruberton
Oglou	Entwisle
Georgians, Tartars, Africans, &c.	Messrs. Wynne, Stewart, &c.
Zorilda (Princess of Mingrelia)	Mrs. Durang
Selima (in love with Kerim)	Monier
Liska	Miss Trajetta

A description of the most prominent scenery, &c.

Act 1. The interior of Timour's Fortress, with a BRIDGE in the back ground—on one side of the stage a TOWER in which Agib is confined. A MAGNIFICENT PROCESSION of the Tartars over the Bridge on HORSEBACK, conducting ZORILDA, who is mounted on a Courser richly caparisoned; the COURSER KNEELS and Zorilda dismounts.

Scene 3. A SPIRITED TOURNAMENT. Timour and Zorilda enter and seat themselves on thrones to witness the who at that moment enter the LISTS on HORSEBACK. Kerim's Horse takes part in the combat, and drags Sanballat to the ground. Kerim dismounts and proposes to renew the combat on foot—the horses are led away and the fight begins. Kerim falls and loses his sword; his rival rushes to despatch him: at that instant,

Kerim's Horse interposes to save his Master.

Sanballat in fury stabs the Horse,

Who falls and expires at his Master's feet.

Act 2. A splendid BRIDAL CHAMBER, belonging to Timour.

The Last Scene represents TIMOUR'S FORTRESS BY MOONLIGHT. A TREMENDOUS CATARACT & WATERFALL over which is an arched bridge. One side of the stage represents the EXTERIOR of TIMOUR'S FORTRESS. A variety of smaller Towers and Terraces appear in the perspective.

During this scene, the Georgians and Mingrelians engage the Tartars on horse and foot. Timour himself ON HORSEBACK appears and encourages his troops—he becomes personally engaged, and is dismounted—he is pursued and not having time to enter a PORTCULLIS leading to the interior of his castle, he climbs the battlements, and reaches in safety the TURRET'S TOP—he brings forth Zorilda and threatens to destroy her unless Agib, who has escaped to the Georgians, is restored to him—she breaks from him and runs to the bridge, from which she leaps into the water—Agib on horseback rushes after her.—The Georgians with a BATTERING-RAM make a breach in Timour's castle—ALL THE HORSES ENTER.—At the conclusion of the General Engagement, Agib having recovered his mother, returns with her on horseback. TIMOUR IS OVERTHROWN, but Zorilda spares his life at the intercession of Agib and Oglou.

PRECEDING THE SPECTACLE,

Will be presented the celebrated comedy called

THREE & DEUCE.

After which, a new Scotch Ballet, got up under the immediate direction of Mr. Parker, called

DONALD & PATIE.

 Tickets and places for the boxes to be taken of Mr. Howard, at the Box Office on Wednesday from 10 o'clock till 2, and from 3 till the conclusion of the performance.

☞ To prevent an undue occupation of seats, which gentlemen have been at the trouble of taking in the course of the day, it is particularly requested that they will send their servants as soon as the doors are open, to keep their respective benches until they arrive themselves.

¶ The audience not only having been annoyed, but the managers seriously injured, by persons unlawfully descending from the gallery into the boxes, they give this early notice to say that none but persons of color can in future be admitted into it.

Doors to be opened at half past 5 and the curtain to rise at half past 6 precisely.

THE Small Pox having recently appeared in Leesburgh and Fredericktown, the citizens of Alexandria are respectfully solicited to send such pauper children as they may be acquainted with to the house of the subscriber. He believes that there are few of that class, either white or black, who have not already been secured against its contagion; but would be happy at this time to ascertain the fact distinctly by examining their arms. Any public notice addressed to the individuals concerned would be nugatory, as most of them are unable to read, and it is on that account that he solicits the aid of the citizens to whom the newspapers are accessible.

Land for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Coote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr. M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, near the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber wishes to sell two valuable Tracts of Land—one situated in the upper part of Fairfax county, adjoining the lands of Samuel G. Griffith, and bounded north by the Potomac river, containing 700 acres, about one half in wood; of the cleared land a considerable proportion is first river bottom, equal in fertility to any in Virginia: the upland is well situated for farming and of a good quality. There is also a mill seat on the Tract of considerable value. This farm is worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in the farming business, as it certainly is not exceeded by any in the county (perhaps state) as a farm of profit, and may be had on reasonable terms. Mr. John Bicksler, who resides near the land, will shew it, and Mr. Wm. M'Carty of Loudoun county, or Mr. John W. Brenaugh of Georgetown, D. C. will make known the terms. If this Tract is not disposed of before the 2nd of MARCH, it will then be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, at Wiley's Tavern, on the road leading from Alexandria to Leesburg.

The other Tract contains 1000 acres, and is the upper and most valuable part of the Tract I live on. It is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and bounded N. by Accotink creek. This Tract will be divided to suit purchasers, if found necessary. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber living at Cedar Grove, who will shew the land and make known the terms.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water,

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles.

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd. H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthicum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewitt.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAILY's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,
